I agree to pay my balance by May 15, 2009. I understand that I am sharing in the risks inherent to farming and that quantities and quality of my share of the harvest may be adversely effected by unfortunate weather events. I understand that it is my responsibility to pick up my share each week at my designated time and location. I understand that there will be no special arrangements or schedule changes made for missed pick-ups. I understand that there are no refunds given.
